HTTP Request Flow

After the application starts goto browser and access http:// localhost:8080/login Right click, inspect element and goto Network section there you can see request information

Request information means Request URL, Request Header, Request method and Request response. By default the requests are GET by default or any type of html forms are GET by default.